GRATEFUL FOR GENEROSITY

By the time you read this, you should have received in the mail your 2019 year-end giving statement. We kindly ask that you compare your own record of giving to River Road Church with the statement provided from our financial office and promptly report to us any discrepancies.

As I saw the shipping container filled with these giving statements headed to the post office last week, it was astounding the number of people who give so generously and regularly to River Road Church. Each of those giving statements represents a person or family who joyfully wants to take part in all that God is doing in and through our church.

Our church ended 2019 in a positive financial situation thanks to your generous gifts. We funded completely our mission and ministry commitments because of your sacrificial giving. You are a talented and vibrant and big-hearted church and I want to say Thank you!

It’s really remarkable all that we were able to accomplish together last year. We finished our staff hiring process. We hosted the new executive coordinator of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, Dr. Paul Baxley. We began a strategic relationship with Greg and Sue Smith, missionaries in Fredericksburg, Virginia. We hosted renowned organist and conductor Huw Williams from Bath Abbey in the United Kingdom, we nurtured relationships with sister congregations with a pulpit swap with Rabbi Hal Schevitz and Congregation Or Atid and we held a joint Thanksgiving worship service with Quioccasin Baptist Church.

We sent mission teams (of all ages!) to Panama, Camp Alkulana, Lynchburg, Greenville South Carolina, Lumberton North Carolina, and many other places across Virginia and beyond. We nurtured our growing children’s and youth ministries and we’re gearing up for an exciting 2020 of missions and ministry together.

Friends, we can do so much good for God’s Kingdom when we put our hearts, our money, and our faith together. Every gift helps us achieve the mission God has given us to reach out to our community and beyond with love and light.

I thank you for your giving in 2019. I humbly ask you to continue your spirit of generosity in 2020 as we look forward expectantly to all God has in store for River Road Church!

Peace,

Daniel

I never fully understood the concept of “church family” until Margie's [Davis] illness and subsequent death. The church was there to pray with us and to offer encouragement during her illness and again, to offer prayers and guidance though the days following her passing. At every step of the way someone was there to offer love and assistance: Daniel [Glaze] and David with their prayers and counseling; Daniel with a poignant message at our celebration of life for Margie; Ann Bagwell and her committee in ensuring the smooth progression of that service and making all in attendance welcome; Diane Shoemake and her committee for attending to the many, many details involved with the reception; and the support and outpouring of sympathy from so many members of the church.

We are indebted to all.

Panama Mission Trip
Donations Deadline: Sunday, February 2
Trip: February 8-16
River Road Church, Baptist is continuing our mission to Panama to serve with the Fundación Cristiana Médico Social (Medical Social Christian Foundation) to provide medical and dental services to indigenous people and those in need in the communities of Gallinaza in the province of Veraguas, and los Guzman in the province of Coce. This year we will also be involved in a construction project with a Kuna congregation who are building a new church in the very remote jungle community of Morti, in the Darien Province.

The team is partnering with four other churches and 23 people led by co-team leaders Judy Collins, Joe Teefey, Norma Hays, and Sue Smith, a CBF missionary. Seven team members are new to the Panama mission this year. The team members are: Bonnie Livick, Christie Lessels, Emily Sumner, Gray Snowden, Ruth Snowden, Joe Teefey, Judy Collins, Laura Lee Chandler, Norma Hays, Steve Larson, Bill Thurston, Daniel Ingram, Geoff Sundberg, John Heisler, Lawrence Heisler, Russ Collins, Meador Horne (Orange Baptist), Janet Moore (Second Baptist, Richmond), Jerry Hill (Second Baptist, Richmond), Marty Cash (Second Baptist, Richmond), Dianne Duke (Urbanna Baptist), John Smith (Urbanna Baptist), Sue Smith (Fredericksburg Baptist).

Our church will commission the team during worship on Sunday, February 2, 2020. We hope you will commit to pray for them as they are on mission in the name of Christ, providing love and care to our Panamanian neighbors.

After a five-year partnership between the Virginia Baptist and Panama Baptist Conventions concluded in 2016, the Virginia Team was asked to serve again due to the relationships developed with the Medical Social Christian Foundation and the Cooper family (founders).

Historical Hallmark
Beginning in January 1946, services which were being held in the Chapel at River Road Church included a ‘very fine quartet’ to provide leadership for music during worship services. Soon after, a children’s choir was organized by Miss Mayme O’Flaherty, organist. She was authorized by the church to spend five dollars a month to purchase music and begin a music library for the church.
